

British Values

7th – 13th December

Mutual Respect and Tolerance

We all have memories that are a record of our lives and the experiences we have had.

Memories can evoke different feelings in each of us. Letters, photos and other special objects can bring these memories to life in different ways for different people.

7th December 2020

UN Rights of a Child

Memories help us to form our own identity. When we remember events through letters, photos and other special objects, it helps us to understand who we really are.
